

DAY TREATMENT SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS CHECKLIST

MUST HAVE ALL PRESENT
	Axis I or II diagnosis present, other than a sole diagnosis of Developmental Disability
	Does the child meet Level of Care Criteria?
	Is the child experiencing symptoms/behaviors related to diagnosis that severely impairs the functional abilities in school, social, community or family domains?
AND EITHER OF THE FOLLOWING
	The child is living in a family setting and is at risk of being removed from that setting for reasons related to items 1-3, immediately above.
	The child is at risk of or has already experienced significant preschool/school disruption (multiple suspensions, long term suspensions, expulsion, impaired or destructive peer relationships, etc.) for reasons related to items 1 through 3 above.
AND EITHER OF THE FOLLOWING
	Client requires a Day Treatment to acquire any of the following: improved coping skills and strategies, disability management strategies, or strategies for managing behaviors associated with functional impairments
	The child is 3 to 5 years of age with atypical social and emotional development and manifest behaviors of a diagnosable mental disorder without therapeutic intervention.